In recent years, there are growing attention to when people should choose their own career, with some arguing that making a choice in young age can lead to an inappropriate decisions. However, I believe, ~~that~~ choosing career at the young age helps children to have a sustainable purpose and enough time for preparation.

First and foremost, young people often have a lot of time for exploring their own interest. So, having a job that you enjoy can give you the sense of satisfaction ~~and~~ ^{and} enhance workforce. For instance, there are a vast majority of children that can take a part in various activities, developing their skills, such as problem solving or ~~inter~~ interact with others. This gives ^{them} an opportunity to pursue a career based on their own interests and skills. What reflects your perspective and lifestyle is your job. ~~So if~~ ^{So if} you don't make an appropriate decision about your future profession at the young age, it can lead to long-term problems during works. Nevertheless, ~~that~~ choosing a career at young age give you a lot of time to prepare and gain real-life experiences.

It is important that people choose a career when they are still quite young. Nowadays some people think that career is powerful than love or others. They want to be rich when they are young. When they have married they can do anything with money and spend their child with waste space.

Others think that careers are important than love. For this people in the first place is love and being happy. They just live in the really life. If they prove it not meant they already have happiness with family and friends maybe with love.

However, without money or career you can't live happy. In the one day you will see it. (When) for example when you start you without money can't buy something. When you in the dangerous situation without money you can't live there. It's really example.

Finally, for young people choosing career it's useful for their live and for their future. But summer is decision it your.

The young individuals believe that choose a career when they young is very what and will lead to the great future. I strongly believe that it is true and it will help them.

To begin with, young people and teenagers have a amount of energy and motivation. In other words, they could do amount of different work, ~~for~~ all day and night. They will be strongly motivated by ^{the} money, future and fame. Moreover, they will do everything for it, ~~they~~ they might ^{sell} something, work at shops, teach somebody for an awards and ~~more~~ money and even ~~could~~ be a master at guiding. IV WRITING Local Reporters Wanted!

Over the past year, our village has seen many interesting events. In spring, we held the annual harvest festival, which brought together all villagers. Children played traditional games, and local musicians performed folk songs. After that, everyone joined a community project to clean the park and plant new trees, making our village more beautiful.

In summer, our school organized a sports day and a small science fair. Students presented their projects with great enthusiasm, and parents were very proud. One remarkable person in our village is Mr. Karim, who has been volunteering at the community center for more than ten years, helping both children and the elderly.

Daily life in the village is calm. People work in farms, shops, and schools. Neighbors often visit each other, share food, and celebrate festivals together. Despite being small, our village is full of warmth and friendship. I hope readers of your magazine will enjoy learning about our village and its people.

Dear, Journalists center,

I'm writing this letter, primarily because recently I saw announcement in an English-language magazine. There is someone that I'd like to interview, it is a famous actor Jonatan Paul. I'm his biggest fan since my childhood, and I would love to interview that person if I have the chance to. ~~the~~

He always was my role model, the person whom I want to be alike when I grow up. I saw every movie where he take a role, and always was impressed by his incredible talent in acting. His plays are wonderful, you can feel that professionalism in his work. He achieved a lot of goals in his carrier way - some oscars, premies from president and other famous individuals.

If I get a chance to interview him, I would ask him about his childhood, his dreams, his first role, how he got so famous, carrier path, and also his feeling: what is his feeling when he play his roles? it is very interesting for me.

In summary, it's would be a wonderful experience to meet him, and ask some question that you interested in.
with respect, Diana nowadays, many people believe that choosing future career in young ages is ^{to make} beneficial and important for students. In my opinion, this decision depends on person and it is not important to make responsible decision in still quite young period of life.

On the one hand, it allows students to make confidence steps to their adolescence and build future plans for their life. They will save time for searching job or career. and even able to make own business earlier. For example, student who chose future job earlier, can find suitable university and even workplace abroad without any doubts or wasting of time.

On the other hand, this period of time is very early for responsible decisions, which may change whole life. Future job plays a big role on people's goals, salaries, mood and other aspects of life. In this way, it is important to choose a future career when person have some experiments and confidence towards future job. For instance, making decision as adult save mental health and time from lot of changing of workplaces.

In conclusion, even choosing future career can save time and (help) help in the future, it is also possible that can harm your mental health and waste time against. Consequently it depends on human's goals and wishes.

"It is important that people choose a career when they are quite young".

It is essential that individuals decide what type of profession should they do, while being a young person. From my perspective, I believe that early decision offers a wide range of opportunities and benefits for these people.

On the one hand, as a young individuals, people tend to be more active and engaged when making a decision for their future majors. This is one of the crucial enrichments of job decision while being a young person. To illustrate this point, Steve Jobs is famous for its biggest innovation, which is an Apple company. When he was in his adolescence, he already chose to work with computers and hopefullly succeed in creating his own company. Which he undauntably achieved. Now, if we just take a look on his great accomplishments, we can confidently claim that his decision was right. Indeed, most of the successful people started their journey as a young individual. That is the reason why I believe choosing a career path as a young person plays a crucial role.

On the other hand, as an old person profession decision won't play an important role as it did when you were much younger. Furthermore, as an old ~~pe~~ and mature person career path might become a problem. For instance, old citizens tend to be mentally fragile and inactive. If they ~~are~~ will be given to select a profession, I feel that it would ~~and~~ lead to stress and exhaustion. Which is why it's vital to choose your career decision ~~with~~ being young.

In conclusion, while young people are usually ~~o~~ immersive and active to make a career path decision, ~~older~~ older people tend to be rather stressed and frustrated about it.

It's important that people choose a career when they are still quite young." Many people think that when they are young, the most important is study. However, I think that, if you make your career, you should do it. Even when you are quite young.

Firstly, you must be sure about your future. In recent years, education always changes and can become hard. Even when you grow up, you can't be sure that you pass the exam and maybe you can't find work. So if you know how to make a career, you have a hobby and know what is money. You must do it right now.

Secondly, a lot of children and teenagers have a very big talent, but their parents don't want to help them and improve their talent. However, they can make a career, use their talent, become very famous and start to earn money. The main role in this situation plays you, so you should decide ~~make a career~~ choose a career or not.

On the other hand, ~~if you want to make a career~~ people who want to choose a career don't have enough money to improve and develop it. Also, if you choose a career, you can forget about study. However, it's not very scary if your career develops.

In my opinion, I think that it's very important to choose a career when you are still quite young. Just need to know your limits and what you can do. So if you have a passion, you should choose it. It can do your future very balanced and easy. Your future is in your hands.

is important that people choose a career when they are still quite young.

Guys! Today I'd like to talk about... Is it important that people choose their career when they are still quite young. Actually it depends from the person and the profession. They choose. Nowadays the professions became very important things and something very serious. We should choose our profession because we will live with it. Unfortunately people should choose their career and professions now. I said "unfortunately" just because students must choose their professions and career early. And a bunch of students don't even know how important it is. A lot of people can't find a job for work because they couldn't choose the right decision of their career. All of us want the best life. The benefit in it that students becomes serious about their future. And also we can try to change the career. (but it's doesn't work easily). So... yeah. Therefore we should choose our career carefully and think about future too. Do not do unwise decisions because in the future we will regret it.
